Ir The attention of the undersigned has been called to an everusement in the Evening Star over the signature of G. W. Homs, addressed to the patrons of the Waverley Line of Stages, in shich the Public are cautioued not to mistake the Stages of F. A. Pelmer going through 'Waverley Place' for those of the 'Waverley isse. So farthis notice is harmlers enough; but Mr. H. deems it his best to avail himself of the opportunity thus afforded to renew his fast to create sympathy toward himself as the persecuted propriet of the Waverley Line, to accomplish which he imagines he is justed in uttering gross falsehoods respecting the undersign d.

The subscrib r has determined to spare neither expense or toil in sublishing a time of Stages through Broadway for the accommodation of gentlemen and their families living in the upper part of the dry, which shall compare favorably with any in respect to the style side carriages, the fleetness of the horses, or character of the drives, and shall carry passengers at the lowest rates charged on the rule; and by so doing, without attempting to carroach upon the rights of competitors, hopes to establish a healthy claim to pashe patronage. He asks an impariary public to judge him according to his merits, and not by the published slanders or the twistin-like stabs upon his character made at the corner of Broadway and Pin-street, and elsewhere by a disappointed rival and his hirelings. Among other plans adopted by Mr. H., the modest and persecuted proprietor of the Waverley Line, to secure an increase of patronage, is the arregent claim made by him for the credit of reducing the price of the fare. Now it is well known that no consequence of the reduction of the fare to six cents is the Line.' So far this notice is harmlers enough ; but Mr. H. deems it his Murphy, of the Bowery Line, and the Harlem Railroad Company's Cars, the Broadway Omnibuses have been compelled to conform themselves to this taindard; and to them, therefore, the testit exclusively belongs. In order to disabuse the public mind in regard to the vile slanders put in circulation by the worthy, unassing proprietor of the Waverley Line—not Waverley Piace, resember D—and his industrious myrandons, the undersigned requests attention to the annexed affiliavit. The grass and wilful misstatements published by Francis A. Palmer, would not be heeded by the subscriber were it not that many who may read the same are whelly ignorant of Palmer's avowed intentions. Ireduced the fare in my stages, being assured that the public and myself would be benefitted by the same. The public have rewarded me for it; hence the 'gall and wormwood' of a disappointed extortion-ist and competitor. He speaks of 'published slanders' and 'assassinlike stabs": As these charges are more clap-trap phrases designed to create a sympathy, without assigning any reason for them, I deem it incompatible with prudence and my own standing to further notice GEORGE W. HOMAN.

City and County of New-York —George Homan of said city, being daily worn, says that about the time Francis A. Palmer commenced running his line of stages, he told dependent, who was then selling takets at fifteen for a dollar, that deponent must raise the price to twelve for a sollar, which deponent refused to do; and Palmer then said he would increase his number of stages to twenty-five and put his price down to correspond that demonstrate the most of the deponent must rice down to correspond with deponent's, and that deponent mu hads by the consequences.
